An Executive Appointment
The Appointment of Two Students to be Junior Class Marshals for the Class of 2007

Whereas, Assistant Dean of Students Keith Tannenbaum asked the Parliamentarian of the Representative Assembly to find two students to be junior class marshals for the Class of 2007;

Whereas, the Executive Council was asked by the Parliamentarian of the Representative Assembly to fill the two vacancies for junior class marshals for the Class of 2007 by executive appointment; and

Whereas, Article IV of the Bates College Student Government Constitution allows for Executive Appointments; now therefore, be it

Enacted,
That Gabrielle Voeller ’07 and Patrick Corrigan ’07 are appointed to fill both vacancies as Junior Class Marshals for the Class of 2007;

That Brent Bette ’07 is declared an alternate; and

That upon passage of this Executive Appointment, the Parliamentarian (or his/her designee) relay the abovementioned names to Assistant Dean of Student Keith Tannenbaum.

Respectfully Submitted,

Sponsors (in no particular order)
Bill K. Jack ’08, President
Chair, Executive Council
Bates College Student Government

Jason Buxbaum ’08, Vice President of Student Clubs
Member, Executive Council
Bates College Student Government

Ben Reed ’08, Vice President of Student Clubs
Member, Executive Council
Bates College Student Government

LEGISLATIVE ACTION

Monday, March 27, 2006:
Originally proposed and passed