A Bill
To Require All Clubs that Receive BCSG Funding to Have Their E-mail Lists Open to Any Student

Whereas, all clubs recognized by the Bates College Student Government (BCSG) are required to be open to all students if they are to receive funding; and

Whereas, it makes logical sense to have e-mail lists of the aforementioned clubs open to students without needing approval to subscribe; and

Whereas, currently there exist e-mail lists of some of the aforementioned clubs designated as “private” now therefore, be it

Enacted
The Vice Presidents of Student Clubs (or their designee(s)) ensure all the aforementioned clubs make their e-mail lists open if they are currently designated as “private.”

Sanctions are as follows:
- Clubs will be given two weeks after passage of this bill to comply with it.
- Clubs that do not comply within two weeks will face a $1,000 fine.
- Clubs that do not comply within three weeks will face the possibility of forfeiting all rights and privileges granted to BCSG-approved clubs. Leaders of these clubs will be called before the Organizational Review Board to make their case for remaining as a club.

Respectfully submitted,
Danny Bousquet ’09
Representative, Rand Hall

Ben Reed ’08, Vice President of Student Clubs
Chair, Organizational Review Board
Bates College Student Government

Bill K. Jack ’08, President
