A Bill
To Help Fund The New York Times and The Boston Globe

Whereas, the student body expresses the desire to read The New York Times and The Boston Globe; and

Whereas, for the 2005-2006 year, the Bates College Student Government allocated $1,000 towards the cost of The New York Times; and

Whereas, currently there are 50 copies of each paper available each day; and

Whereas, having 60 copies of each paper per day would be beneficial; and

Whereas, the cost of 10 additional copies of each paper per day in addition to the agreed upon $1,000 for The New York Times totals $1,800; now therefore, be it

Enacted,
The Treasurer of the Bates College Student Government transfer a sum of money totaling $1,800 from the Bates College Student Government account to the Student Activities account each academic year until this legislation is repealed or amended.

Respectfully submitted,
