

CALL FOR PAPERS

The Society for Applied Research in Memory & Cognition invites submissions for

SARMAC VII

Bates College, Lewiston, Maine

July 25-29, 2007

SARMAC invites submissions for papers, symposia, or posters in any area of applied research on memory and cognition. Submissions are particularly welcome from students and researchers whose interests combine cognitive science with applied areas. Bates College, the location for SARMAC VII, is a small liberal arts college with excellent facilities including a beautiful academic building for conference sessions and dormitories for conference attendees. To submit a paper, symposium, or poster visit www.bates.edu/sarmac. The deadline for submissions is 12/31/06.
