NESCAC WINTER ALL-SPORTSMANSHIP - March 30, 2010

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

NESCAC WINTER ALL-SPORTSMANSHIP SELECTIONS ANNOUNCED

Honor Recognizes Positive Contributions to Sport Within Conference

HADLEY, Mass. – The New England Small College Athletic Conference has announced the Winter All-Sportsmanship Team for each winter sport sponsored by the conference. The All-Sportsmanship Team is composed of one student-athlete from each institution for each sport and is selected by the players and coaches from their respective team for their positive contributions to sportsmanship.

The All-Sportsmanship Team recognizes student-athletes from each varsity sport who have demonstrated outstanding dedication to sportsmanship. These student-athletes exhibit respect for themselves, teammates, coaches, opponents, and spectators. They display sportsmanship not only as a participant in their sport but also as a spectator and in their everyday lives.

Notable members among the 83 individuals selected to the Winter All-Sportsmanship Team were men's ice hockey forward Zach Miller (Bridgeton, N.J.) and men's squash player Ethan Buchsbaum (Princeton, N.J.), both from Williams College. Miller is one of three skaters from the NESCAC among the seven finalists for the 2010 Hockey Humanitarian Award, given annually to college hockey's finest citizen.

Eighteen members of the All-Sportsmanship team earned All-NESCAC honors in some form this winter, with 12 of the 22 men's and women's squash players garnering both honors. Returning from the 2008-09 All-Sportsmanship team were 17 individuals, with four student-athletes - Samantha Smith (Locust Valley, N.Y.) of Colby, Caroline Flynn (Philadelphia, Pa.) of Connecticut College, Jo-Ann Jee (Kuching, Malaysia) of Trinity, and Cara Madden (Ipswich, Mass.) of Wesleyan - receiving recognition for the third year in a row.

The Winter All-Sportsmanship Team was created by the NESCAC Student-Athlete Advisory Committee (SAAC). The NESCAC SAAC serves as the liaison between the student-athletes of NESCAC member institutions and conference administrators. The committee provides a voice to represent the concerns of all student-athletes and to discuss issues impacting student-athlete well-being.
