BOSTON, Mass. -- Thirty-one players representing 20 different teams have been named to the 2009 New England Football Writers Division II/III All-New England team.

Bentley College leads the team with four selections. New England Small College Athletic Conference champion Amherst College has three picks, as does Northeast – 10 champion Merrimack College. Westfield State College, Norwich University, Assumption College, and Springfield College each placed two players on the team. Also named to the squad were players from American International College, Bates College, Bowdoin College, Bridgewater State College, Curry College, Endicott College, Maine Maritime Academy, MIT, Middlebury College, Plymouth State University, Southern Connecticut State University, and St. Anselm College.

The Division II Northeast-10 Conference had 12 players selected, while from Division III the New England Football Conference had eight picks. The New England Small College Athletic Conference had six representatives, while the Eastern Collegiate Football Conference, in its first year of existence, had three selections. Two players came from independent institutions.

The team will be honored at the New England football Writers Banquet on Thursday, December 10 at Casa di Fior in Wilmington, Mass. People interested in attending should contact Dick Lipe at Bentley College at 781-891-2334.
