Softball Player of the Week

Stacia Saniuk, Bates

(Soph., C/INF - Sharon, Mass.)

Saniuk went 8-for-20 (.400) at the plate with seven RBIs, three runs scored, two doubles and one home run for a slugging percent of .650 for the Bobcats last week at the Gene Cusic Classic in Ft. Myers, Fla. During Bates' 7-6 win over Ohio Wesleyan on Saturday, Saniuk hit a three-run home run in the fourth inning, then doubled to drive in the winning runs in the sixth.

Notes: Tufts split a pair of games at the Sun West Tournament in Orange, Calif., to open its season on Sunday. Junior SS Heather Kleinberger (New City, N.Y.) had three hits and scored two runs in a 10-8 loss in eight innings to Elmhurst. First year RF Jenna Robey (St. Ann, Mo.) went 2-for-3 with three RBIs and a home run in an 11-3, six-inning win over Augsburg...Wesleyan senior Dayna Yorks (Needham Heights, Mass.) has provided some big hits for Wesleyan in its wins thus far this season. Yorks hit a two-run homer to trigger a four-run inning in a victory over St. Catherine, while her 7th-inning triple drove in the tying run against Wis.-Platteville. Junior Joanna Borwnson (Hamilton, Mich.) leads the Cardinals with a .571 batting average so far this season. First year pitcher Meaghan Dendy (Swansea, Mass.) leads the Cardinals with a 2-1 record, 2.68 ERA and an opponent batting average of .206. She fired a five-hitter for her first complete-game win over St. Catherine, allowing just one earned run with seven strikeouts.
