Bates College senior forward Val Beckwith has been chosen as the Maine Women's Basketball Coaches Association (MWBCA) Player of the Year, while Rachael Mack from Colby College has been selected as the Rookie of the Year and Adrienne Shibles from Bowdoin College was picked as the Coach of the Year.

A native of Woburn Massachusetts, Beckwith was the number one choice on 9 of 11 ballots (coaches were not allowed to vote for their own players) in garnering the award for the first time. She averaged 18.3 points, 6.3 rebounds, 2.2 steals, and 1.64 steals per game for the 16-9 Bobcats. Beckwith finished her career with 1,470 points and this year set school records for made free throws (142) and attempts (190) in a season.

Mack, a freshman forward from Augusta, helped lead the Mules to a 13-12 record by averaging 10.7 points, 7.4 rebounds and almost 2 blocks per game. Mack shot an outstanding 55.8% from the floor and 84.6% from the free throw line this year.

Shibles, in her first year at the helm of the Bowdoin Women's Basketball program led the Polar Bears to a 23-4 record and their eighth conference crown. The Polar Bears will be making their ninth-consecutive appearance in the NCAA Tournament.
