Rookie of the Week: Molly Brown, Bates (Fy. – South Dartmouth, MA)

Brown averaged 13.0 points and 4.7 rebounds, 1.3 assists, 0.7 blocked shots and 1.0 steal per game for Bates this week. She scored 16 points against Trinity to go along with four rebounds, one block, and one steal. She shot 14-for-29 from the floor and made six threes in nine attempts (.667) in the three games.

Honor Roll: Lindsay Ranquist, UMF Bekab Campbell, MMA

News, Notes and Milestones:

~ Junior forward Beth Suggs (Bath, Maine) had a career-best 20 rebounds at Curry, tying the 6th-highest single-game mark in program history -- a number that was last achieved by a UNE player during the 2001-02 season by Missy Stults '04 against Curry.

~ Senior guard Kelley Paradis (Newport, Maine) had seven steals against RWU to increase her career total to 254 -- a mark good enough for the program's all-time record in the category, which had previously been held by Christine Grillon WC '96 (251).

~ Colby's Jil Vaughan shot 61.5 percent or better in all three of her games this week.

~ St. Joe's McDevitt netted a career-high 23 points and made five of eight shots from long distance in a 71-58 victory over Anna Maria College on Saturday.
