

Men's Track Performer of the Week

Peter Kosgei, Hamilton

(Sophomore - Kapsabet, Kenya)

Kosgei finished first in both the 800-meter and 1500-meter at the 2008 NESCAC Men's Track & Field Championships, finishing with a meet and program record time of 1:50.62 in the 800 - the fastest in Division III so far this year - and 3:51.41 in the 1500. Kosgei also turned in an Olympic B standard time of 8:43.78 in the 3000-meter Steeplechase at the Penn Relays last week.

Men's Field Performer of the Week

Noah Gauthier, Bates

(Senior - Amherst, N.H.)

Gauthier was first in both the Hammer Throw (55.71m) and first in the Shot Put (15.11m) at the 2008 NESCAC Men's Track & Field Championships on Saturday at Hamilton. The Bobcats finished the meet third with 84.50 points.

Notes: After sharing the NESCAC Men's Track & Field crown a year ago, Williams won the outright title on Saturday at the 2008 NESCAC Men's Track & Field Championships. The Ephs finished with 195 points, 12 points ahead of second place Tufts, as the Jumbos were the co-champs with the Ephs last year. Bates rounded out the top three teams at the conference meet with 84.5 points.

Women's Track Performer of the Week

Anna King, Colby

(Senior - Greenland, N.H.)

King broke the NESCAC Championship and Colby program record in the 3,000-meter steeplechase, winning the event for the second-straight year at the 2008 NESCAC Women's Track & Field Championships. Her time of 10:34.65 beat the rest of the field by nearly 36 seconds.

Women's Field Performer of the Week

Vantiel Elizabeth Duncan, Bates

Duncan placed first in the Shot Put (13.51m), third in the Hammer Throw (43.43m), and fourth in the Discus (35.26m) at the 2008 NESCAC Women's Track & Field Championships. Bates finished seventh with 62 points at the 11-team championship.

Notes: Williams College finished first at the 2008 NESCAC Women's Track & Field Championships, the eighth consecutive NESCAC title and 16th overall for the program. Williams finished the meet with 160.5 points, while Tufts finished in second with 120 points, edging third place Middlebury by 0.5 points.
