Suppose the quantity $Q$ of a substance changes at a rate that equals one-third of the amount of the quantity. And suppose that there are 27 grams of the quantity when $t = 0$.

a) Set up the differential equation satisfied by $Q$ and $t$.

b) Solve the differential equation given in part a).

c) How many grams of the substance will there be when $t = 2$?