

Math 105

November 5, 2009

Name: _____

1. A farmer wants to fence a rectangular area as inexpensively as possible. Assume that fencing materials cost $1 per foot. The farmer has $40 for a fence to enclose the largest possible area. Give appropriate names to the quantities involved and state the objective and constraint equations involved in this problem.

Math 105

November 5, 2009

Name: _____

1. A farmer wants to fence a rectangular area as inexpensively as possible. Assume that fencing materials cost $1 per foot. The farmer has $40 for a fence to enclose the largest possible area. Give appropriate names to the quantities involved and state the objective and constraint equations involved in this problem.