

Eula Russell Turner Carville Collection

Collection Summary

Title: Eula Russell Turner Carville Collection

Date: 1873-1960

Creator: Eula Russell Turner Carville

Extent: 4 document cases, 1 oversize box

Abstract: The collection contains photos and ephemera of members of Eula's extended family. The Russell, Turner, and Lane families are well-represented within these materials.

Administrative Information

Materials donated by Daniel and Patricia McManus of Leeds. Processed by Kristin Cook and Meagan Doyle.

Historical Note

Compiled by Eula Carville of Leeds, ME. She was a school teacher who married twice, first to Adin Turner in 1921 then later to Mr. Carville.

Scope and Content Note

The Eula Russell Turner Carville Collection contains photos and ephemera from the lives of Eula and her extended family. The collection includes diaries kept by Eula's father, Ernest Russell, as well as autograph books belonging to her mother, Kitty Lane Russell, and a Russell family tree.

Arrangement Note

Organized into four series: I. Russell Family, II. Lane Family, III. Turner Family, and IV. Miscellaneous. These three families feature most prominently in the collection and all have close ties to the creator of the collection, Eula Carville. Original accession numbers were retained but items are not in numerical order.
