

FOOTPATHS OF THE HOLY MOUNTAIN

FROM KARYES TO HILANDAR

Distance: 20 km

Journey Time: 7 – 8 hours

© The Friends of Mount Athos, 2007 – 2012. All rights reserved. – Version 1.0

WARNING: This route is very isolated and without sources of water.

For most of the way, this route follows the historic ridge path, the Way of the Bey, from which there are fine views down either to the East or to the West, or occasionally to both at once. Since the initial section of the historic route from Karyes to the ridge is now the main vehicular road to Vatopedi, the route here described follows the Karyes-to-Vatopedi footpath before climbing briefly to the point where Vatopedi vehicular road and the ridge path diverge. From there, apart from a few short sections along track and minor road, the route is entirely along the historic Way of the Bey which remains kalderimi in places, before descending to Hilandar. Less obvious parts of the route have been marked with orange tape and/or red-and-white waymark arrows.

Note: All distances given (in metres) should be taken as approximate. The route described is liable to unpredictable change: for example, forestry work, road or track construction and plant growth may alter the route, or its appearance. Signposts may disappear or new ones appear. The Friends of Mount Athos strives to keep this description correct and up to date but cannot take responsibility for its accuracy.

FP = Footpath; K = Kalderimi (stone-paved FP or track)

- 90 Just after passing large stone plinth with cross inlay on L, road bears L, downhill. KSO/R along ridge path, soon uphill.
- 200 At T junction of paths, turn R (signed Zographou). (FP to L (signed) leads to Konstamonitou and Dochiariou.) After climbing initially, FP soon levels out, with views of Bay of Vatopedi to the R.
- 700 FP crosses to west side of ridge. KSO, initially downhill, ignoring traces of path along the crest of the ridge.
- 1050 Just after FP crosses back to east side of ridge, ignore FP joining from L signed Konstamonitou. KSO on level, signed Chera, Vatopedi and Zographou. Path soon returns to west of ridge, with good stretches of K.
